Remote Learning

Covid 19 has seen the need for school staff, their students and families to employ a far greater use of technology to communicate with each other and maintain the delivery of education.

Having looked at the list of approved platforms for such engagement Ballyfin National School has opted to communicate with families via Aladdin and Class Dojo as our main platforms for delivery of educational material and communication.

Zoom is being used where live lessons/ sessions are taking place.

Staff, Parents and Pupils are expected to adhere to the following guidelines in order to minimise risk and ensure safety.

Guidelines for Video Calls - Staff

Ballyfin National School is mindful that access to devices in houses is limited – particularly where a number of people are working from home at the same time.

Teachers are asked to consult with the other teachers to ensure that there are not multiple calls to the same home at the same time.

Video calls can only be offered to students via the parent email and it is up to the parent to decide whether or not the family is in a position to accept the call at the specified time.

Parental consent to the use of the platform /digital tool is implied in the parent's use of the link to join the call.

Teachers & staff are advised to create new links for each meeting to reduce the likelihood of the link being shared outside the list of invited attendees.

The teacher or staff member is the host for the meeting. Disable the co-host function.

The teacher / SNA is always first to the meeting and last to leave to ensure that students can't join before or after the meeting. Use the waiting room facility to screen those wishing to join in advance.

Lock the meeting once attendees have been admitted.

Teachers/ SNAs are asked to be mindful of the background on screen – to ensure that the background is appropriate and does not feature personal or inappropriate items.

The call is an extension of the classroom and the normal code of behaviour and dress applies.

Teachers / SNAs are asked to keep a log of calls and attendees.

Teachers are asked to inform the principal before initiating a series of live lessons/calls.

Teachers are asked to forward the following Guidelines for Parents and Students prior to commencing any live lessons or calls .

Guidelines for Video calls - Students and Parents

Video calls are seen as an extension of the classroom and the same expectations around behaviour and dress apply.

All calls are made via a parent email.

Parental consent for the call is implied as the link to the video call will be supplied through the parent email and by accepting the link you give your consent.

A parent is asked to remain present with pupils for the duration of the call in the event of any difficulties.

Pictures or recordings of the calls should not be taken.

Parents will be advised of the start time and duration of the call and the school will adhere to these times.

Devices should be set up in an appropriate space in the home preferably with the camera facing a wall or corner of the room to avoid distractions and respect the privacy of their pupils' homes.

In accepting the call the parent is agreeing to supervise their child while on the call and ensure any content being submitted is appropriate.

Parents are asked not to share the link to the meeting with anyone else - including other members of the family and extended family. This is a safety measure for the protection of all the children.

This policy will be reviewed and updated as required by legislation or changing circumstances.

Staff will be made aware of any updates or changes to this policy.
